Undertaking a Specialty

A Prank of the Wind.

Pedestrians on Fourth avenue were treated to an unusual and amusing sight yesterday at noon. A handsome young lady, a long black silk scarf and a sudden gust of wind, were responsible for the incident. The lady, clothed entirely in black, and looking very sweet, was hastening out the avenue, when suddenly one of those unexpected currents of air came along, skyward her carefully arranged scarf. Higher and higher it went, the passing throng being too intent in watching the movements of this bit of silk, offered no assistance to the now thoroughly embarrassed young lady.

Staid business men, chaperones, shoppers, street gamins, etc., stopped and speculated as to the final landing place, when the wind, having suddenly spent itself, it was slowly descended, and as if to further tantalize its disengaged owner, who now momentarily expected it to again reach the earth, spread itself out and fluttered defiantly in the breeze overhead on a nearby trolley wire. Of course, the bystanders suggested various ways to get it. Some advised getting a long pole, others thought it feasible to climb one of the many passing cars, and in this vein they resorted; still others were in favor of calling out the fire-department. However, thanks to the mischievous pranks of the wind, all of this unfolded and lifted it gently from its high perch, much to the satisfaction of its fair possessor.—Louisville Post.

The Apple Crop for This Year

The apple crop of the United States this year, according to the estimate of the "New England Apple Grower," will be 43,000,000 barrels, against 27,000,000 in 1901.

The crop presents some marked contrasts when placed beside that of a year ago. In the older established orchard sections in the middle and eastern States that increase over last year's failure is pronounced. In the central west there are also sharp gains, while in the southwest, a section last year favored by exceptionally good yields, the crop this year is unusually deficient. As for quality this is far from satisfactory in the western and central states but in New England it is better than last year. New York the most important apple state, has a big crop, but less than the crop of 1890.

Bishop Hall, of Vermont, has authorized a prayer for use in the churches of the diocese in behalf of the Legislature, as none is provided for that body in the prayer book.

The scheme of county organization was then explained by Mr. Ford. He suggested that the nucleus for an organization in each county consist of every citizen who had volunteered to help the movement along, of the commercial organization in counties where such exist, of the editors of the newspapers, of the county judges, of the mayors or chairman of board of town trustees, and of any other suitable persons. This would give a nucleus of at least five gentlemen to each county. They are to form the committee for the entire county by calling either a mass-meeting to arouse interest, or by any other method that is most desirable.

South Eastern Kentucky.

Perhaps no section of Kentucky is suffering as the South-eastern portion is. Secularianism is spreading its wings and sowing its seed. Its schools are founded in nearly every town and village. Young men who would be good Christians only, are being taught in these sectarian schools. Where is our school? Have we no place to educate the young? So often I have been asked the question by our aged brethren. "Have we no school in which to teach the young?" It only pains me to say we have none. Where is our Corbin school? Burnt down, and the Episcopalianians are building on the ashes a large school house, into which our young people will be invited to learn lessons of Episcopalianism. Unless we provide for them they will either do this or go to other denominational schools. Many of the big hearted young men of this section would like to preach the gospel of Christ if they could get an education, which they could and would if we had the school near home. When one goes to Lexington or to our other schools in the distance he never comes back to stay, he goes in search of a "big salary." Brethren, I have traveled over this part of the State for 12 or 13 years and I am sure that I know the needs of the field. There are a few half-starved preachers working this field at from 16 to 30 per cent. No wonder Kentucky boards and lodges are ruined. A great many of the county seats are not being touched, and in many of the towns where our cause is strong our churches are having no preaching. The sects, with their schools are taking the day. Are we going to turn both the towns and country over to them? Listen! We now have as fine a location as can be found in the State, on the hill in the edge of the town of Corbin, and have about $300 to begin with, but we are not able to build the house without help. I know that there are large-hearted men in the State who will gladly help us in this work. If I knew where to find them I would get them to come to their doors. I am now doing evangelistic work in the town of Corbin. As much as you want to aid this work, please write to Dr. E. H. Steele, of Woodbine, Ky., who is interested in the master and is treasurer of the Board of Trustees. If you don't write to Dr. Steele, I may get around to see you in a few months at your house.

Brethren, I am not joking. One good school in this section would be worth more to the cause than all of the preaching that the State Board is having done in that neck of the woods. I have a speech of the subject you must hear in the future.

A Starling Surprise

Very few could believe in looking at A. T. Headley, a healthy, robust, well-grown boy, ten years old when he suffered such tortures from his bird. A tea-cup full of water was poured over him, and he was left hanging by his tail, his feet touching the ground, his head suspended by a string. Two hours later he was still hanging, though he had lost his tail feathers.

"I have not felt a twinge in over a week," he said. "I have been drinking beer, purifying the blood and cure rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervousness, improve digestion, etc. I am now in perfect health. Only 50¢ at Perry & Thomas drug store, 111 Main Street.

Asleep Amid Flames

Break into a burning home, some flames lately dragging the sleeping inmates from death. Fancied security and the like. "I am safe because I sleep with my eyes closed." Don't you neglect coals and embers. Don't you sleep with your clothes on?" Dr. King, a physician, says to women: "Don't you sleep with all your clothes on?" Chest and Lung Disease, Heart Disease, Liver Disease, death and doctor bills. A tea-cup full of water is poured over the most stubborn. Humphries and nice testing, it's guaranteed to satisfy you.

By loosening the mother's agony of mind and physical condition, the weight is brought upon the child, and instead of physical and mental suffering, health, beauty, healthiness, humanity, remains a blessing even to the parents. The parents have another daughter to give as a substitute.

W. R. Andrews, of Grand Rapids, Mich., at a recent toast, got off the following appeal:

"You Filipinos don't know what you are missing by not coming to the grand country of ours. There isn't anything like it under the sun. You ought to send a delegation over to see us—the land of fine churches and 40,000 licensed saloons; Bibles, forts and guns, houses of prostitution, millionaires and paupers; theologians and thieves; libertines and liars; politicians and poverty; Christians and chain gangs; schools and scalawags; trusts and tramps; money and misery; home and hunger; virtue and vice; a land where you can get a good Bible for fifteen cents or a bad drink of whisky for five cents; where we have a man in the grass with three wives and a lot in the penitentiary for having two wives; where some men make sausages out of their wives, and some want to eat them raw; where we make bologna out of dogs, canned beef out of horses and sick cows, and corpses out of people who eat it; where we put a man in jail for not having the means of support and on the rock pile for asking for a job of work; where we license bawdy houses and fine men for preaching Christ on the street corners; where we have a Congress of 400 men to make laws and good whiskey makes bad men and bad men good whiskey makes good men good; where newspapermen are paid for suppressing the truth and made rich for teaching a lie; where professors draw their convictions from the same place they do their salaries; where teachers are paid $25,000 a year to dodge the devil and tickle the ears of the wealthy; where business consists of getting hold of property in any way that won't land you in the penitentiary; where trusts 'hold up' and poverty 'holds down'; where men vote for what they don't want, for they won't get what they do want by voting for it; where 'niggers' vote and women are beaten; where an outcast and her male partner flourishes as a gentleman; where women wear false hair and men 'swoon' their horses tails; where the police wire-puller has displaced the patriotic statesman; where men vote for a thing one day and curse it 364 days; where we have prayers on the floor of our National Capitol and whiskey in the cellar; where we spend $500 to bury a statesman who is rich and $10 to put away a workingman who is poor; where to be virtuous is to be a crank; where we sit on the sun-baked valve of energy and will with the threat of conscience; where gold is the one thing sought for; where we pay $15,000 for a dog and 30 cents a dozen for a poor woman for making shirts; where we teach the untutored Indian external life from the Bible and kill him with bad whiskey; where we put man in jail for stealing a loaf of bread and in congress for stealing a railroad; where the check book talks, sin walks in broad day light, justice is asleep, crime runs amuck, corruption permeates our whole social and political fabric, and the devil laughs from every street corner. Come to us, Filles! We have a new system of education, a generation of good things and bad things, hot things and cold things, all sizes, varieties and colors, ever exhibited under one tent. —(From Appeal to Reason.)

Heavy eating is usually the first cause of indigestion. Repeated eating of heavy foods, especially after a meal, overtaxes the stomach, producing a swelling and distension of the intestines and finally causing constipation.

ACCORDING to the New York World the poor but plios Standard Oil Company has been obliged to eat its dividend for the last quarter down to $10—the making total for the year only $45,000,000, or 45 per cent upon its nominal capital, instead of $18,000,000, or 48 per cent, as it had last year. No wonder the trust has finally found it necessary to add a cent a gallon to the price of refined oil!—New York World.
